

HELPFUL WEBSITES TO VISIT!

Scholarship Search Engines

<http://www.highfivescholarships.com/> - The High Five Scholarships website is now live with the largest collection of scholarships ever assembled. It is available to everyone free of charge. In addition to scholarships they will soon have free ACT and SAT practice tests and Study Guides.

www.fastweb.com – Provides links to college searches and scholarship opportunities.

www.studentscholarships.org – Provides 24,000 scholarships available to Seniors.

www.scholarships.com – Another good scholarship tool.

www.unigo.com

www.collegeboard.com:

www.collegenet.com CollegeNET is a technology company that builds web-based tools for event and academic scheduling, prospect and admissions management, tuition processing, and alumni development for colleges and universities. CollegeNET also operates a scholarship search engine and social network where students create topics, participate in discussions, and vote on scholarship winners.

www.scholarshipmonkey.com: claims their database provides students access to more than 1 million undergraduate, graduate, and professional scholarship awards worth in excess of $3 billion from greater than 4,000 sources. Like the other search engines in this article, they are committed to providing their service free of charge.

Helpful Websites

www.number2.com – Gives online free ACT preparation.

www.studyguidezone.com – Provides early information for ACT, Compass, etc.

www.studentaid.ed.gov/funding - Provides details about federal student aid programs.

www.dhe.mo.gov/ppc/reminders2.php - Provides information on types of postsecondary schools available, admission requirements for Missouri's colleges and universities.

<http://www.occsupplydemand.org/> - The Occupational Supply and Demand System is a website that gives students information about expected job openings each career field, plus tells how many students have graduated from college programs in each field. This gives young people some indication about their completion.